

Player Code of Conduct

As a member of the Aggieland Homeschool Basketball Program you are more than “just another player” on a team; you are part of another “family,” the family of Aggieland Homeschool Basketball. As such, you represent the values of this Basketball Program. Your dress and actions reflect the homeschooling community. You are expected to conduct yourself in a manner that, both on and off the court, reflects the values the program strives to promote. Those values are:

- To promote Christian moral values throughout our activities and in our relationships with one another. We expect our players, coaches and parents to respect the moral values the program strives to promote.
- To respect the unique qualities, gifts, and talents each person possesses. We acknowledge that every person, regardless of race, color or religion is uniquely created in God’s image.

Dress – Please follow the “Spirit of the law” here and dress in a manner consistent with the values of the program. When in doubt, choose modesty. If you’re not sure what you’re going to wear is appropriate, it probably isn’t. Boys should change clothes in a non-public location in the facility. Your coach and Team Parent have the final say in what is acceptable attire and grooming.

Jewelry, Watches, Necklaces, Wristbands, Piercings, Tattoos, Hair Feathers, etc., – All jewelry, watches, necklaces, wristbands, and cartilage-piercing jewelry must be removed during basketball activities for safety precautions. Our program will abide by the rules and regulations regarding items, which are addressed by TAPPS, UIL, TCAL and tournament organizers in their rules and policies. We will abide by these rules as required when playing teams in these leagues and tournaments.

Drugs, Alcohol, and Tobacco – Players, coaches, and volunteers are prohibited from using or possessing illegal drugs, alcohol, or tobacco during any Basketball event.
